

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Strategic use of intellectual property can be a significant engine for growth, allowing a business to get a jump on its competition. As we get to know your business, we suggest ways to obtain, license, and enforce your intellectual property rights. The firm's intellectual property practice is fully integrated with its corporate/commercial and litigation practices, thereby preserving and, if necessary, defending the value of your intellectual property.

Areas of expertise include:

- Registration of Trademarks and Copyrights
- Preliminary Trademark Searches
- Licensing
- Domain Name and Internet Disputes
- Agreements with Authors, Artists, and Software Developers
- Infringement Litigation
